IN A LONDON HOTEL.

Conventions and Conceits That Surprise American Visitors.

The American visitor to London who stops at a certain hotel in that city finds many novelties and conveniences that are not known here in America, where hotels are supposed to have reached the acme of luxury, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. It has an American plan dining-room, but only a French bill of fare. It has an Indian room, where an Indian chief in the costume of his country prepares native dishes for those who desire them.

In this hotel each guest is known by the number of his room instead of his name, and it is rather odd to an American to be addressed as "Mr. 960," as though he were a convict in the penitentiary.

"On each floor, day and night, are to be found a maid, a valet and a waiter, who are at your service and have free access to your rooms. When you come home at night, if you are a man, you find your clothes pressed and cleaned and carefully packed away in a chest of drawers. If you are a woman, the maid attends to frills and furbelows as though she were hired by you especially. Guests never bother with their keys—the maid or valet on the floor takes charge of the key and is ready at any time to open your door.

A Peculiar Optical Illusion.

The correspondent of a photographic journal, in speaking of the special interest that attaches to the Roentgen rays among photographers, who often are not in a position to invest in elaborate and expensive sets of apparatus, says it is not generally known that by means of a very simple optical illusion, an almost perfect imitation of the wonders of the radiography can be shown without the trouble and expense of induction coils, tubes or fluorescent screens. All that is necessary is to take a small feather from a pheasant or turkey, and holding it close to the eye look through the radiating ribs at the end of the feather at the fingers of the hand held up towards the sky, or against the window. The flesh of the fingers will then appear to be transparent, with the opaque bone running down in the center, as shown by the true radiography. If it is desired to exhibit the phenomenon by gaslight a piece of ground glass must be held in front of the flame to diffuse the light.

Progress in Uganda.

Uganda has advanced enough in civilization to have a hospital established by the government at Mengo, the capital. It will have a men's ward with six beds, a woman's ward with four beds, an operating room and a storeroom. A missionary doctor will be in charge.

FREE MEDICAL BOOK FOR MEN

How to Restore Lost Manhood and Perfect Development.

This great work, plainly written by a high medical authority, shows how many vigor can be regained and obstacles to marriage removed. It is a modern work for men who suffer from nervous debility caused by overwork, youthful indulgences or later excesses. It points out how to be cured of nervousness, despondency, impotency, at home, without consulting with a doctor.

IT IS ABSOLUTELY FREE.
This great book, entitled "COMPLETE MANHOOD AND HOW TO ATTAIN IT," will be mailed free, in plain, sealed wrapper, to the address of any sincere inquirer by the Erie Medical Company, 64 Niagara Street, Buffalo, N.Y. No C.O.D. scheme; no deception.

that the baby will be healthy and happy.

A marvelous medicine for young mothers is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Taken during the period preceding motherhood it makes strong, healthy and vigorous the organs upon which rest the burdens of maternity. It allays inflammation, soothes pain, and restores steadiness to the nerves. It does away with the discomforts of the expectant period. It insures the health of baby and makes its coming easy and almost painless. It is the discovery of an eminent and successful specialist, Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription before my confinement, and I was only in labor a short time," writes Mrs. Minnie A. Peterson, Box 6, Easton, Fresno Co., Cal. "The physician said I got along unusually well. I think the medicine saved a great deal of suffering and I get all my friends who need it to try it."

One of the best-known of American medical men said: "If you want to reform a man, begin with his grandfather." This would be wise if it could be done. Since I cannot be done, try something else. Reform the future grandfathers and grandmothers. Do this through education. The greatest thing for a man or woman to know is himself or herself. To know one-half the capabilities and disabilities of the human body is a liberal education. A good start for this education is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Any one can have this finely illustrated 1000-page book for the small price of twenty-one cent stamps. This is simply to pay for mailing. If you would like the book in fine cloth binding instead of paper, send thirty-one stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

GOLD AND SILVER REPUBLICANS.

In some States the gold Democrats and the silver Democrats are having trouble as the gold men do not want the silver men to use the party name, though the latter are in the ascendancy. In other States the gold and silver Republicans are having like trouble. In no instance do the silver men object to the gold men using the prefix "gold" to designate their party affiliation, but the gold men strenuously object to the silver men using the word "silver" on the official ballot. This is the case in Nebraska at the present time. The gold Republicans have filed a protest with the Secretary of State against the silver Republicans being designated on the ticket by that name. The gold men allege, as a basis for their action, that the new election law of the State prohibits any new party from taking the name or any part of the name of a political organization already in existence. The silver Republicans admit the correctness of the gold Republican's interpretation of the law, but maintain that the gold Republicans are the usurpers, and should be enjoined from using the title "Republican party." In support of this contention the silver Republicans quote from a number of State platforms of the party in which the equal use of both gold and silver is declared to be the cardinal principle of the Republican party.

The litigation in Nebraska promises to be interesting as there is a bitter feeling between the gold men and the silver men in that State. Prior to 1896 the Republican party in Nebraska, as in Nevada, was, or at least pretended to be very much in favor of the remonetization of silver. Every State Convention of the party declared in the most emphatic language for the use of gold and silver as money and the coinage of both metals on equal terms at the mint. In 1896, when the gold trusts gained control and assumed the management of the party, the conventions, State and National, repudiated the former principles of the party and declared that the gold standard should be maintained in the United States until foreign nations, which are getting richer at our expense, and profliting by the depreciation in the market price of silver, should generously consent to its free coinage by the United States. That the gold Republicans do not want the silver Republicans to use the word "silver" as a distinctive designation very conclusively proves that they are attempting to deceive voters, who, though in favor of free coinage, might be misled by the name Republican into voting for goldbugs.

STRIKES DON'T PAY.

At the Chicago labor meeting, in the presence of over two hundred representatives of labor organizations, President Eugene Debs of the Social Democracy appealed to the representatives to work together for the amelioration of the present condition of the laboring classes. "Strikes don't pay," said Mr. Debs. "They are useless; they are caused by the employing classes. When capitalists get ready for strikes they provoke them, knowing well that their cause is won before the conflict is begun."

Mr. Debs has learned from experience that workmen are never benefitted by a strike, but on the contrary are almost invariably injured by it. They have the indisputable right to quit when dissatisfied with the hours which they have to work, or the wages which they receive for their labor. They can only use moral suasion, however, to prevent others from taking their places, and when that fails the strike is a failure, for the moment they attempt to use force the law interposes and they are imprisoned or shot down. There are too many idle men at present to make strikes successful. In the case of the coal miners, who were working for a few dollars a month, others were found by the mine operators to take the places of the strikers, and the latter did not succeed in keeping the mines closed. What, then, can workmen hope to accomplish by striking when thousands are ready to take the places of the striking coal miners, whose wages did not average $5 per month, though the business in which they were employed was the most dangerous in which men are engaged?

Mr. Debs is right, strikes don't pay. There are too many seeking employment, and moral suasion does not count with hungry men with starving wives and children.

The Board of School Directors in San Francisco, alarmed at the fate of the supervisors, has commenced to economize. All bills on account of supplies for September must lay over until there is more money in the treasury. The Board has dismissed over twenty employees and evening schools are being consolidated to reduce expenses. Political bosses have run the schools and $300 is said to have been the price charged for a position as teacher. Judge Wallace's decision in the case of the Supervisors is expected to be productive of much good and to result in many reforms in San Francisco.

Another witness has turned up who has seen Mrs. Lustert since the date of her supposed murder. This time it is an attorney of Nebraska.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

One hundred miners returned to work at Des Moines yesterday. This practically ends the local strike.

A passenger train on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad crashed into a wagon near Chester, Pa., yesterday, killing three persons.

Ex-Policeman John Reidy, the defaulting treasurer of the Police Relief Association at St. Louis, has surrendered to the authorities.

A lively gold excitement is prevailing near Pordham Spring, Arkansas. People are buying up tracts of land and development work is in progress with fair encouragement.

Edward McCamish of Los Angeles, recently convicted of the killing of Constable McCoy Pyle at Oastias station, was yesterday sentenced to life imprisonment in the Folsom prison.

The London Evening Post says: However much the home government may favor the reopening of the Indian mints the Indian executive is strongly opposed to it and it may not occur for some time.

The Massachusetts Democratic State Convention assembled at Worcester yesterday to nominate State officers from Governor down. The platform of the Chicago National Convention was endorsed.

The Board appointed by the Navy Department to consider the needs of the navy, report that five new docks are needed, to cost $5,000,000, and that several of the present docks at the navy yards should be enlarged.

Four new cases of yellow fever have been reported at New Orleans. Ten new cases are reported at Edwards, Miss., also ten at Mobile. At Clinton there are several suspicious cases and people are fleeing from the town.

Pedro Vinalay, who pleaded to an attempt to murder Miss Florine Poirier, was sentenced at Colusa by Judge Alberthy yesterday to forty years in the Folsom penitentiary. This is his second term in the prison for a similar offense at San Diego.

A large crowd attended the National Labor Convention at Chicago yesterday. A resolution was handed in endorsing the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and it is believed it will be embodied in the report. The report will cover about 1,500 words and favors a series of National conventions to which the friends of labor are invited. The necessity of strikes is recognized, but says the most effective strike is the ballot box.

The Irrigation Congress met at Lincoln, Nebraska, yesterday. There was some disappointment at the small attendance from outside States. Delegates from thirteen States were present. Brigham Young, son of the founder of the Mormon Church and who was billed for an address, was compelled to abandon this visit at the last moment owing to illness. His State, however, in point of attendance is second only to Nebraska.

Convict incendiaries started a fire in the Sing Sing prison. Evidently the fire was started to create a panic, during which prisoners might escape. The alarm was sounded just after the dinner call and twelve hundred convicts were seated in the mess hall. Immediately upon the alarm being sounded came the test of discipline. The doors of the mess room were closed and the guards took their places. There was some excitement, but no panic. The convict fire brigade responded promptly and the fire was soon out.

An attempt was made to fire Stockton yesterday morning, several incendiary fires were started simultaneously. The Pioneer Art Gallery was destroyed. The Odd Fellows' building was set on fire and Levy Brothers' large dry goods store was gutted. Several other fires were discovered, but put out before any damage occurred. The officers have a theory that the attempt to fire the city was made by companions of Robber Ford, who was shot dead by the police a few nights ago. It is known that he had partners in the city and it is believed that they had determined to avenge his death.

Public opinion in Italy is strongly in favor of the Cubans and the papers say that in order to avoid war the powers will compel Spain to grant autonomy to Cuba. The Cubans have held possession of the greater part of Cuba for several years and resisted successfully the efforts of the Spanish to subject them, and it is time the United States and other nations recognized them as belligerents. Nearly four years successful warfare entitles them to some standing among nations, even if some sugar plantations on the Island are owned by the sugar trust.

When the regular eastern passenger train was eight miles from Portland, Oregon, it was stopped by three masked men, who took the engineer and fireman into the brush and robbed them of their watches and $40 in money. The passengers were not molested, and from the awkward manner in which the hold-up was conducted it is supposed to have been the work of novices.

A little item in a newspaper will make an enemy to the paper for years but it won't stop him from reading the paper—it merely changes him from a subscriber to a sponger.—Chronicle.

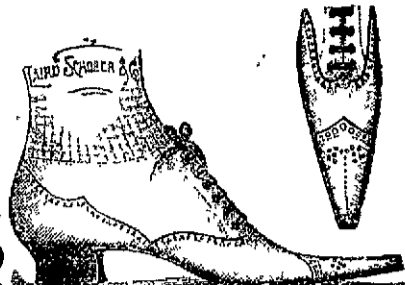

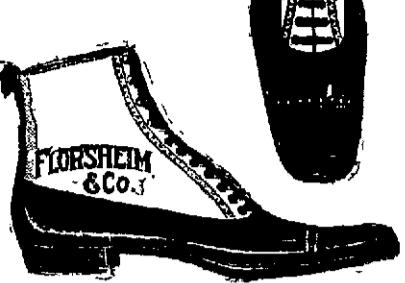

Judge Carroll Cook of San Francisco has decided to admit Theodore Figel, charged with murdering his employer, Isaac Hoffman to bail. The amount is fixed at $40,000.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—At Goshen, Ind., a disputed horse race was decided by the revelation of a camera.

—In Larue county, Ky., it is said that Charles Williams has grown a bunch of white blackberries.

—Bears have been so thick around Idaho that it has been said that there was a bear for every bushel.

—The oldest house in Union, Mo., built in 1802 and occupied always by the same family, has just been torn down.

—Pius Payne, a negro of Bardstown, Ky., has exhibited six tomatoes grown by him which together weighed 14 pounds.

—John J. Ingall's daughter Constantine ran an electric car in Atchison during one evening in place of the regular motorman.

—Wayne county and Butler county (Neb.) creameries are making each 2,000 pounds of butter a day, and the county people are happy.

—Allen Heusted, 71 years old, of Grand Blanc, Mich., has taken to the bicycle with a vim, and the other day rode 30 miles to make a visit.

—Mrs. C. Reyes, 83 years old and crippled, cultivated a garden by her own labor at St. Augustine, Fla., and one day she picked from it a 36-pound watermelon and 80 pumpkins.

—Floridians hoped that the red spider would destroy the water hyacinths in the St. John's river, but the plants seem to grow faster than the insects can do away with them.

—A $1,200 farm in Tennessee has been paid for wholly in hen's eggs, the installments being remitted daily, sometimes at the rate of three cents a dozen for the eggs, delivered in four-dozen lots.

—In the long quiet nights there is a constant sound in keeping awake. Greek had made very strict rules to keep awake during the long nights. Peds were not allowed to sleep. The men were compelled to stand and move about.

—A London laurel prints a long article on the "ape-like" aspect of the human "howling, singing, hughing, crying, laughing and yawning." All are said to have their hygienic uses. Talking is pronounced a healthful occupation, good for heart disease, and to some extent a substitute for bodily exercise.

WHY SHE MARRIED HIM.

She Knew His Faults to a Dot, But She Used Him for Him.

It was then first quarrel.

"Well, I don't see how I came to marry you," she snarled.

"Same here," he returned.

"What, I could see in you," she returned bitterly. "All men are the same, as lovers, but as husbands it's different, you know."

"Oh, hol all men are the same as lovers. Then you had a lot of lovers? Thanks for your extraordinary candor! I always thought you were a flirt, but now you have spoken the words out of your own mouth."

"Out of my own mouth! Can a person speak with some one else's mouth, you minny? Why don't you try to be logical as well as insulting? I suppose it's too much to expect from one whose brains are in his mustache or in his clothes, or in his pretty feet. Oh, don't whine; I know your faults to a dot."

"Well, since you do," he added, "I will be frank with you and say that I married you to give you the opportunity to tell me my faults, so that I could in time approach your own angelic standard of perfection."

"Indeed, and I married you because you were such an expert at repairing a bicycle tire. Don't you remember how you carried your jiffy outfit around with you? You were so expert!"

"You used to tell me you married me because you loved me."

"What a silly answer that was!"

"Then you are a liar too, eh?"

"I saw I married you because you were such an expert tire repairer. When I am riding the bicycle I'll have no time for you, do you hear? Go out in the yard and clean my wheel, and let me hear no more out of you for a week!"
